EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Timothy Trop on 12/5/06.

The application has been amended as follows:

In the claims:

a) Claim 34 (lines 1-10) has been rewritten as the following:

--A method of making a stencil plate for depositing material on a semiconductor device comprising:

forming a plurality of segmental annular openings in a stencil plate to define a central portion of the plate, a plurality of spokes, and a remainder of said stencil plate, said spokes connecting said central portion to the remainder of said plate between adjacent segmental annular openings, said stencil plate having a thickness from about 3 to about 10 mils, wherein said stencil plate adapted to be removable positioned over a semiconductor device for depositing material on the semiconductor before removing the stencil from over the device.

depositing the material in said openings and under said central portion of said plate to form an interrupted circular annulus resinous member--.

b) Claim 35 has been canceled.

2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: None of the prior art references discloses the claimed method for making stencil for depositing material on a semiconductor device including the combination limitations of: "forming a plurality of segmental annular openings in a stencil plate to define a central portion of the stencil plate, a plurality of spokes, and a remainder of said stencil plate, said spokes connecting said central portion to the remainder of said plate between adjacent segmental annular openings; and depositing material in said openings and under said central portion of said plate as to form an interrupted circular annulus resinous member" set forth in the present's claim.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
